The Passover lamb was a great reminder; the Passover Lamb is the Great Redeemer! When John the Baptist introduced Jesus as “the Lamb of God,” he was not referring to His meekness. He was getting us ready for the saving work of Jesus. When we trust in Jesus – His death to pay the penalty of our sins – His blood is applied to us.

Conquering Weapon

The blood of the Lamb and how the remnant overcomes by it is stressed in the last portion of Revelation 12. The previous page looked at the fall of Satan. Successfully enduring his great wrath will only happen for those who are entirely dependent on the Saviour who shed His blood for them.

the blood of the Lamb" in the Bible refers to being washed by virtue of the blood of Jesus. His blood was spilled upon his death to cleanse the sins of humanity. Jesus was referred to as a lamb as a way to indicate his innocence before his execution, going willingly to the slaughter to provide a means for humans to become blameless in the eyes of God.
